How is "using tools appropriately" important in your life?	How has encouraging others helped everyone succeed in your life experience?	Has someone else's encouragement ever helped you to reach a goal?
When does using language specific to a craft or skill help you communicate?	What are some examples of "content specific vocabulary" in your job, a hobby or a sport? (ex: cooking= cups, rue, steam)	What types of tools or equipment are you careful to use appropriately? Why?
When is really important for you to be a good listener?	Tell me about a time you thought about something differently after hearing someone else's perspective.	Which od these skills do you think is most important for me to work hard to acquire? Why?
